THE VALUATION RAISED.

Last week we published a card from the city tax assessor by request from him, in which it stated that he had raised the valuation of the property of the city, thirty per cent. Always standing for the best interests of the town, we chose not to make any comment on this move until we had first learned the sentiments of the general public. Of course if it should be the wish of the majority of the taxpayers to have the assessment raised 30 per cent, why we are willing to abide by the will of the majority. But we think it a very bad move, and a great deal of authority assumed for the assessor to do this without the consent and wish of the taxpayers. We did not think at the time that it would meet the approbation of the people, and until we found out that it was not, we did not make any mention of it. But since quite a number of influential citizens have accented us and asked our opinion, and so vehemently expressed their disapproval of the measure, we feel it only our duty to call your attention to the fact.

The article in question last week stated that the increase would prevent the people from appearing to be tax-ridden. It is a well known fact that we are not tax-ridden, and no citizen who has the least public-spiritedness will make any complaint of paying $1.25 per one hundred dollars, our present tax rate. The board of supervisors should pay no attention to this raise in valuation as a whole, but let it rest where the property holders have assessed it, unless it is in instances where individuals have assessed too low in the opinion of the board. If anyone wishes to express their opinion and desire in this matter, or on we shall be glad to print same in the Courier.

HAYS WHINERS.

Considerable gossip is going the rounds in Fulton about the small vote polled in West Fulton precinct by N. B. Hays.

Those familiar with the political complexion of the Hays men who worked on the Hays ticket in the election day are not in the least surprised that Mr. Hays only received eight votes. These workers are the same people who were too good to vote for the martyred Goebel. These are the same men who voted against Jim Milner and Luby Hargrave, the Fulton boys who were nominated by the Democrats of Fulton county for county clerk and county judge. These are the same parties who are always opposing everything representing progress. They stand for nothing. They represent the negative side no matter what the proposition may be. Like an empty wagon they make a lot of noise and raise lots of dust but that is all.

If these parties had been sincere, why did they not file a contest at Hickman and get the county committee to go in the ballot boxes and count the ballots? Not an election officer in the ward to which these fellows refer ever scratched a democratic ticket. Can these men who are doing so much big talk say the same? As matter of fact, few if any of these Hays workers were entitled to a vote in the Democratic primary and when the officers of the election allowed them to vote they had to strain a paragraph to make it allow this gang to run the town and the sooner they find it out themselves the better off the committee will be. If they are for Hickman over Fulton on the ballot, they should pick up their doll rags and go there to live—or else be good!—Fulton Leader.

A sore toe is always getting "stumped." Don't you know the issue is not between Hickman and Fulton. What has the Governor's race to do with Hickman and Fulton? If you would stop stirring up strife there would be nothing but peace and good will between the two towns. Don't stomp your sore toe so much.

The Fulton Leader gives out the interesting news that the Hon. Luby Hargrave will be appointed one of the State Board of Examiners by Prof. Winfrey when he is elected State School Superintendent. If those Hickman voters who voted for Winfrey had only known this Mr. Gullion would have received more votes in the primary down that way.—Clinton Gazette.

Brother Walker, don't you know that the Fulton-Hickman feeling has subsided? Why don't you let the dead rest in peace?

The Charleston Courier says: A letter from a prominent Mr. Mountain official is to the effect that the Company has not abandoned the Henson-Hickman route but that it will be impossible to do anything with this winter.

Warrants by the wholesale are expected in Lexington, against alleged offenders at the recent primary election as a result of investigations made by and at the instance of Attorney General N. B. Hays.

Every merchant and good citizen will oppose a measure known as the "Parcels Post." Write your Congressman to oppose this scheme of the big mail order house. A hint should be sufficient.

The Rock Island railroad has broken away from the express trust and will conduct its own express business in the future. This effects about 16,000 miles of road.

Try a few doses of Hickman Civic Pride for that knocking malady you suffering with.

The Catalogue House.

It seems that the catalogue house problem is causing the editor of our local paper a great amount of worry. I cannot understand why this matter should worry him to such an extent, when he has so good to offer. The only reason I can imagine is that he is paid a good price by the merchants for the spicy articles which appear in each weekly issue. If the local merchants wish to keep the local trade at home, in their own town, they should "practice what they preach" and try buying all the products at home, that can be obtained from the farmer.

It is a well known fact that the merchants have all their fresh meat shipped here from St. Louis, Union City and other places, instead of buying the stock on foot from the farmer and having it slaughtered and dressed here at home, thereby keeping the "Fulton county dollars in Fulton county." How can the merchant blame the farmer and other local consumers for ordering from these catalogue houses when they do the same thing themselves. I know of a merchant who was contemplating the purchase of a cooking stove. About this time one of our merchants was advertising the sale of the "Major" range, a $50.00 stove. Our merchant could not keep the idea of paying such a price when he could get a range from an out of town firm that would give him the same service, for the small sum of $16.00. Who could blame him for this. Why no one that has a sound mind. Why would he wish to purchase the highest price stove at home, with such a difference in price thereby enriching his brother merchant at his own loss. If our worthy merchants would be content with a reasonable profit, and not try to "gouge" the local consumers, also buy their own goods at home and not do so much strong talking about the catalogue houses, I believe they could keep more of the trade at home. I hope our editor will have nerve to publish this and let the public view the other side of the question, as it has been a one sided question heretofore.

It is a hard matter to fool your local editor, "Citizen." The above letter came to the Courier as "anonymous." We note that particular pains was taken to scratch the return card off the envelope, and to cut the lead head of the top with a pen knife, (not scissors.) But as the local editor is a very good judge of stationery, (as well as human nature) and knowing the grade and class of stationery furnished the correspondents of the Government Agricultural Statistic Bureau, it was a very easy matter to decide who "Citizen" is. It is a positive rule of ours not to publish anything unless the name of the writer is attached to the manuscript, or the writer known to us, but as we are now thoroughly acquainted with Citizen we will proceed to display what he terms "nerve" by printing his article. It would seem that he considers it something to require a great deal of nerve. Well so be it.

The Courier is, always was and always will be for the best interests of the town and community. True, we feel a great interest in our merchants, but this does not prevent us from feeling an interest in and being

It's Fuel that's Expensive—Not the Stove

A Cheap, putty-jointed stove will waste more than its Original Cost in Fuel every winter.

As you know, fully one-half the carbon available for heat in soft coal is gas—the entire gas supply used for fuel and illumination in many cities and towns being made from common soft coal. The ordinary stove in burning soft coal allows this gas-half of the fuel to pass up the chimney unburned, thus wasting it as a heat producer.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove, by means of the patented Hot Blast draft and other patented features, making air-tight joints without the use of stove putty, distills this gas from the upper surface of the coal, utilizing it as a heat producer along with the fixed carbon or coke in the coal, thus burning all the coal. This is why

Cole's Original Hot Blast

Saves the Dollars and makes a ton of common $3.00 soft coal or lignite do the work of $9.00 worth of hard coal.

Your old stove and imitation Hot Blast are not air-tight, do not save the escaping gases and do not give you a warm house at night, because they are made with putty joints. You cannot afford to say to yourself, "My stove will have to do this winter." The old stove is eating up the price of a new stove every year. Not only that, but on top of the cost is the unsatisfactory result it gives. It is always out the coldest morning.

Even Heat Day and Night—Fire Never Out

Cole's Hot Blast is so perfect in construction that fire will keep all night, and when the draft is opened in the morning will burn two or three hours with the fuel put in the night before. No other stove does this. Fire, therefore, never goes out, and the rooms are kept at an even temperature all the time. Burns hard coal, soft coal, slack, lignite or wood.

OUR GUARANTEE

- 1.—We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal or slack.
- 2.—We guarantee Cole's Hot Blast to use less hard coal for heating a given space than any stove burner made with same heating surface.
- 3.—We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning, with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
- 4.—We guarantee that the stove will hold fire with soft coal 24 hours without refueling.
- 5.—We guarantee a uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
- 6.—We guarantee that the draft is opened in the morning will burn two or three hours with the fuel put in the night before.
- 7.—We guarantee the feed door to be smoke and draft proof.
- 8.—We guarantee the stove to be made with no understanding that the stove be operated according to directions, and set up with a good fire.

For Hard Coal—Saves Half

The extent of unburned gases in hard coal is shown by opening the magazine cover of a hose burner when the extra oxygen supplied fills the entire stove with flaming gas. The fact that no stove putty is used to make air-tight joints, gives you perfect control over the draft on Cole's Hot Blast. The stove, economical construction, and the large, positive radiating surface make it the greatest fuel-saving, hard coal stove made.

Would You Lose $50.00 in Fuel to Save $1.00 on the Cost of Your Stove?

That is what you do when you buy a cheaply constructed, putty-jointed, showy made imitation stove. Like all successful inventions, Cole's Original Hot Blast has many inferior imitations, avoid them. They all lack the patented features and careful construction which make the Original Hot Blast a great success. They do not stay tight, and soon open seams and cracks which render them worthless as fire keepers. See the name "Cole's Hot Blast from Chicago" on the feed door. None genuine without it.

HICKMAN HARDWARE CO. Inc.

a friend to the farmer, for we consider the farmer the best friend we have.

And again, we have never directed our onslaughts (as Citizen would term them) to the farmer. There are as many of those people in town, if not more, than there are in the country. Now we are not arguing this matter from a one sided standpoint, as you intimate, for we are always for what is best for the community. Are you sure you can say as much? The assertion, (if Citizen means it for an assertion) that we are paid even so much as a penny for our fight on the catalogue houses, is utterly false. We believe that we have treated the meat question heretofore. Citizen, it doesn't show much public spirit for a man to abuse his local merchant as is done in your last paragraph.

Kentucky's average yield of tobacco per acre is put at 807 pounds; the condition at 84 per cent., in a statement issued by the Department of Agriculture yesterday.

Sacrilege of the Worst Kind.

Mr. Pleasant, a small church of the Christian denomination, which stands near the public road within a short distance of Pilot Oak near Mayfield, was entered by someone the other night and almost wrecked. The trespassers stole the two bottles of wine used for sacrament by the congregation, and after drinking the contents, began to demolish the interior of the building. It is said that the glass doors and windows were shattered by pistol shots. After completing their job of desecration the person or persons then took the two empty wine bottles and threw them into the front yard of Wm. Yates, who lives near the church. He is a prominent temperance worker in that community.

It must be wonderfully interesting to be a statistician. Just think of it! One has figured that if the wealth of the United States were converted into $1 bills they would reach to the moon and back 30 times. He may know he's right, but there are a few of us who are from Missouri on his having the matter reduced to a minimum.

SOCIETY HAPPENINGS

MRS. L. P. ELLISON

In honor of Mrs. Dr. Bailey, of Louisville, last Friday night, Mrs. L. P. Ellison entertained quite a number of her friends at a cure. During the evening a dainty refreshment course was served, consisting of Orange Charlotte with whipped cream, white and Devil's cake. The invited guests were: Mesdames C. L. Walker, Mollie Prather, C. P. Shumate, D. W. S. Amberg, Riley, C. B. Travis, T. T. Swayne, J. M. Hubbard, H. R. Coggill, E. B. Prather, E. R. Ellison, Ed. Millett and K. T. Tyler. Mrs. Bailey spent the night with Mrs. Ellison.

MRS. R. T. TYLER

Mrs. Dr. Bailey, of Louisville, was the honoree of another delightful social entertainment, Tuesday afternoon, at which were invited to the suburban home of the hostess, Mrs. R. T. Tyler, a number of ladies who were last year the invited guests of a house party in Louisville, given by Mrs. Bailey. These ladies were: Mesdames Ed. Millett, Jack Millett, Nannie Kingman, Dr. Hubbard, Ed. Prather, T. T. Swayne, L. P. Ellison and C. B. Travis. This occasion, or dining, was the source of much pleasure and mirth. That Mrs. Tyler is a splendid hostess can be attested by the guests who declared to the Courier that "It was the nicest dinner served in four courses that we ever ate."

EMBROIDERY CLUB.

On Monday street, last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Johnson, the members and a select number of invited guests of the Embroidery Circle assembled and were entertained by the hostess in a most pleasant manner. Those of the invited guests were: Mrs. Schlenker, Mrs. L. P. Ellison and Mrs. R. T. Tyler. One lady told us that she was rather late but she enjoyed the afternoon as much as any of the others. The refreshments were nice indeed, the ice cream especially, with a course of cake and fruit afterward.

H. L. Hendrix Dead.

H. L. Hendrix, son of Mr. J. C. Hendrix, of the Poplar Grove neighborhood on Route 3, died shortly after midnight, yesterday morning, after a protracted illness. Interment will be had at the Poplar Grove cemetery today at 10 o'clock. We are unable to learn who will conduct the services.

Hauly had been in ill health for a number of months, and had been to Colorado for his health, but realizing that he could not recover he came home about the first of this month to spend his last days with his beloved parents. Everything was done by his parents that was possible to secure a recovery, and every medical attention possible was rendered, but the mighty power above saw fit to call him from this world to his reward.

A young man well liked, he leaves scores of friends who grieve to learn of his demise, and who join the Courier in extending to the sad parents heartfelt sympathy and condolence.

Rev. H. C. Johnson Returns to the Hickman Pastorate.

At the annual meeting of the Baptist Conference in Ripley last week, Rev. H. C. Johnson, the pastor of the Hickman Baptist Church, was returned to the pastorate for another year. Rev. L. C. Helm, of the West Hickman Mission, was elected.

This news was greeted by the people of Hickman with great satisfaction. Brother Johnson has been with these people for years and is about to enter upon his fourth, and last according to conference rules, year. The pastor and church workers do not doubt more real good will be done by him in his last year of ministry than in any of his previous years.

The Courier welcomes him to Hickman, and we (we) are so joined by the entire community.

Rev. Sam P. Jones left an estate estimated at $250,000, consisting largely of properties in Atlanta, Cartersville and other points. Those in a position to speak authoritatively say that for many years, Mr. Jones' income was from $35,000 to $40,000 a year from his evangelical and lecture work.

Of this great sum he annually gave away to charitable work more than two-thirds of his earnings. His benefactions were so wide and varied that few but his own family know of them. He rarely spoke of them, and sought to keep them from the public.

His life insurance was fully $75,000, and this, of course, will go to his estate. It is believed that his wife will administer his estate.

The new Pure Food and Drug Law will mark it on the label of every Cough Cure containing Opium, Chloroform, or any other stupefying or poisonous drug. But it passes Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure as made for 20 years, entirely free. Dr. Shoop all along has bitterly opposed the use of all opiates or narcotics. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is absolutely safe even for the youngest babe—and it cures, it does not simply suppress. Get a safe and reliable Cough Cure, by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's. Let the law be your protection. We cheerfully recommend and sell it.—All dealers.

Lake of Quicksilver.

A lake of quicksilver, covering an area of more than three acres and having a depth ranging from 10 to 50 feet, has been discovered in the mountains of the state of Vera Cruz. The value of the product is estimated at millions. This lake has been known to the Indians for many generations. It is situated far up in the mountains, in an almost inaccessible position. Its surface is partly covered by stones. It is believed that volcanic action in the mountains above smelted the quicksilver out of the cinnabar ore and that it ran down and filled this depression. A tunnel will be driven through the base of the mountain, and the quicksilver will be brought down by means of gravity.

They "Hiked."
 Surveyor Golden and Jesse Mosier who went down on the lake last week for the purpose of surveying some land returned Friday. They did not survey the land, because of a frightful apparition appearing in a threatening cloud. The land they expected to survey shook, dreadfully, and emitted great dense volumes of smoke and flame, in the midst of which appeared a monster of the regions below, with a double-barrel shot gun in hand, the bore of which appeared to them to be forty inches in diameter. This awful object said to them in a deep, sepulchral tone, this one word: "Move!"

Twenty Six Cities Doomed.
 Twenty-nine of the largest cities in the world, including Louisville, are doomed. Earthquakes, flood and fire will wreak the vengeance of God on the cities and their inhabitants within the next twenty-four months. This wholesale destruction is to be God's judgement on four nations. This is the prophecy of Edmund Scribner, seventy-two years old, a Washington astrologer.
 The doomed cities are New York, Chicago, Albany, Buffalo, Detroit, Lansing, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Richmond, Va., Pittsburgh, Columbus, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, Muskogean, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Hannibal, Mo. St. Joseph, Omaha, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Denver in the United States, and London, Paris and Rome in Europe.
 An exchange says that after five years of hard work Dr. A. D. Jones of Louisville, has made a success of an invention permitting of telephoning from a moving train. A test was made Friday in company with a party of interested capitalist and newspaper men. The apparatus was used on the train while it was going 40 miles an hour, and people in Louisville, Frankfort and Indianapolis were talked to as easily as though the conversation was over the old telephone system. It was an amazing experiment. This new invention will probably revolutionize the railroad service. A stock company can be organized with $5,000,000 capital at once.

A Tragedy in Madrid Bend.

News has been received here that W. A. Weatherford (who is known as "Bob" Weatherford), a cotton planter at Besse, Tenn., in Madrid Bend, cut the throat of one of the laborers on his place, last Tuesday morning, and the man will probably die.

The man, whose name has not been ascertained, had been employed by Mr. Weatherford to pick cotton, and a hot dispute arose over the weighing. The man drew a revolver, and Weatherford seized the wrist of the hand containing the pistol, and in the struggle three shots were fired into the ground, when Chester Weatherford, an orphan nephew of the planter, ran up and handed his uncle a knife, with which he cut the man's throat.

A preliminary trial was held on Wednesday before a Justice of the Peace of Lake county, and Mr. Weatherford was required to give $250 bond for his appearance at circuit court, which indicates that his offense is not considered at all serious.

The great packers, Swift & Company, offer a splendid scale of from $50 to $200 as wedding presents to men in their employ who will marry. They say married men are much more suited for employment, and adopt this method as an inducement.

Beer Suit Settled.

We are informed this week that the case in the Federal court at Paducah of the Cook Brewing Company of Evansville, Ind., against eighteen of the prominent citizens of Hickman for $5,000 each, had been settled, and dismissed from the courts. The compromise was effected, we understand, through Mr. R. T. Tyler, who had the case in charge. The defendants are to pay the costs in the case. It was first proposed that they pay the court costs and pay the plaintiff $250 for the house and lot but Mr. Tyler wired them that they would pay the court costs, which proposition was accepted. Just what the court costs will amount to we do not know.

It will be remembered that a little over two years ago the Cook Brewing Co., conducted a wholesale beer house just outside the city limits, and at which place was tolerated such conduct on the part of its patron that had a tendency to degrade the morals of the town and to disturb the peace. The citizens in a mass meeting decided that it was a curse that they didn't want tolerated in their midst, and in a body visited the house and after getting permission from the company's agent, proceeded to load the contents of the house into wagons and hauled it to the depot. At the same time all the workmen and low characters of the town were visited and ordered to leave town, among them the Cook Brewing Company's agent.

In a short time the Cook Brewing Company brought suit in the Federal Court at Paducah against eighteen of the most prominent citizens who participated in the wholesale destruction of the beer, for $5,000 each. The case has been continued from court to court and was finally settled as above mentioned.

William Cullen Bryant Married Last Week.

William C. Bryant, one of East Prairie's leading merchants, and Miss Howard Jones, a pretty young lady of the same place, were married in the probate court room Wednesday evening Nov. 14 at about 9 o'clock. Judge Charles R. Love performing the ceremony. They left next day for the east on a short tour.

The groom, Mr. W. C. Bryant, is manager and the leading stockholder in the Bryant Mercantile Co., one of the largest and most flourishing mercantile establishments of Southeast Missouri, a thorough business man, a good and enterprising citizen whose purse is always open to any movement looking to the enhancement of the business, social or other desirable interests of our town, and altogether a gentleman in whom as a citizen, his town take a great pride. He has many friends in Hickman, who join the Courier in extending congratulations.

Fire broke out Saturday night at 12 o'clock in a house occupied by negroes on East Church street, in Union City, and the flames extended to a residence owned by Dr. Dabney and occupied by Mr. Brown and wife, who moved in three days ago. Both houses were consumed. A furious wind blew from the south, and in a few minutes three other houses were on fire, but were saved by a bucket brigade. The firemen responded to the alarm, but as there was no hydrant near enough, they were powerless. The fires were within the corporation, and there is considerable dissatisfaction because the city has not furnished the taxpayers with protection. Loss $2000 insurance $400.

One of our exchanges advertises a cow for sale as follows: "Full-blooded cow for sale, giving milk, three tons of hay, a lot of chickens and several stores." While we have always had the greatest respect for meek-eyed gentle bossy, we never suspected for a moment that she would branch out into the junk-shop business. And she full-blooded, too! No "yaller" dog or post-hole in her make-up. Too bad.

Settling up time is drawing near and if you wish to collect your bills easily get your bill heads printed. This class of work is neatly and cheaply executed at this office. THE A. S. OF E. COLUMN

(JAMES H. SAUNDERS)

The Unions of Fulton County meet as follows: Hickman 1st and 3rd Thursday nights, Simmons 2nd and 4th Tuesday 3 p. m., Montgomery 2nd and 4th Wednesday 3 p. m., Cayce 1st and 3d Saturday 3 p. m. the nucleus at Hazel Dell meets 1st and 3d Wednesday at 3 p. m. Every one is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Rain, rain, rain, did you see the rain Saturday? I guess but few of our members got to Hickman. I did not, so I have no appointment for next week. Does any one know where I could organize a new Union? If not can I add you by visiting the old ones? The old year is almost gone. I suppose you have all read your new papers, Nov. 1st and 15th and know that after Jan. 1 the membership fee will be two dollars instead of one, and that all the dues for the year will be expected in January instead of at four payments as heretofore. Perhaps you also saw that Up-To-Date-Farming will be printed weekly instead of semi-monthly, and that the price will be one dollar instead of fifty cents.

Did you read the President's address? If not you should do so at once. You should also examine the minimum prices and read carefully the situation and the prospect of one dollar for wheat.

Do not be discouraged, but cheer up your neighbors and aid all you can in forming new unions and securing new members for the old ones.

Do you see how rapidly the farmers in Union, Davis, Hancock and other counties east of us are organizing? Twenty-eight unions one month, thirty three the next then thirty four the last. While on Sassafras Ridge we enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Fuller. She had just returned from visiting relatives in Hancock County.

She said the farmers up there talked union all the time. Regularly on every Thursday night they went to the little booklet put out by the State union you will observe a good reason for their talking union and going to the union: Mrs. F. said "even the women and children talked union," and no wonder, for this little booklet shows that the union has put an average of over two hundred dollars in the pocket of every member in those counties.

Do you read the Tennessee papers? The Commercial Appeal reports three large meetings of the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Society of America last week. They now claim 900,000 members and are building large houses and storing their cotton and holding it for 11 cts. They are also holding large and enthusiastic meetings in Texas.

But I guess some of our weak-kneed brethren will cry out "Did you read what the Chicago interco-cean said?" Yes, I read that too, and I advise you to read the reply in the Last Up-to-Date Farming, November 15.

Do not get scared at a little opposition. All reforms must pass through these stages: 1st indifference; 2nd opposition; 3rd adoption. Therefore, do not get frightened, but remember that the fiercer be the tempest the sooner it is over.

Let the other people pay the cost of marketing.

It is not what you want done that counts, but what you do.

For many years farm papers have been telling farmers of their troubles, but now they are not willing to discuss with them how to cure these troubles.

It is useless to tell farmers that they are in the ruins and sloughs if you do not tell them how to get out.

The election is over, the crops are almost all gathered, the wheat is sowed, so it is now time to organize for profitable prices for our farm products.

The A. S. of E. has renewed its strike for dollar wheat, so let us all hold together.

H. E. Curlin went home Sunday, to Woodland Mills, and was accompanied by Bertie Maddox.

R. W. Hubbard Dead.

The Commercial Appeal Monday says:

R. W. Hubbard, one of the best known sawyers in Memphis, died Sunday at 12.30 o'clock at his home at Kerr and Fourth streets of lung trouble. He is survived by his wife and a family of one son and several daughters. The funeral announcement will be made later. Mr. Hubbard has been a citizen of Memphis for many years and came here from Indiana, his native state. His son, Curtis Hubbard, is employed with Riechman-Crosby Sawmill Supply Co. Other relatives are Mrs. Frank Swift, a daughter; Mrs. Lovell, a daughter, and wife of the engineer at Anderson-Tully Co. and two unmarried daughters who are at home.

Mr. Hubbard was 55 years old, and had many friends among the merchants and lumbermen of the city, where he has spent ten years of his active life.

Mr. Hubbard was a citizen of Hickman several years ago, going to Memphis from Hickman.

"Fiddling Bob" Taylor, the new senator from Tennessee, can dance a jig, play the fiddle, argue a lawsuit, debate political questions, lead a prayer meeting, tell funny stories, write interesting poetry and has many other accomplishments. Taylor was recently elected senator after five attempts. Not so long ago he gained national note by bumping the state against his brother.

If you know or hear of an interesting item in the community, make it a point to see that it finds a place in your local paper. We should much appreciate your effort and will send our reporter to ascertain or verify any lacking points. Any writing which tends to better or brighten the new service of a paper makes it of so much more value to the community, and the subscribers are the ones mostly benefitted thereby.

And it came to pass that after he had advertised his goods, there came unto him great multitudes from the regions round about and did buy of him. And when his competitors saw it they marvelled among themselves, saying: "How be it that this man is busy while we loaf idly about our doors?" And he spake unto them: "In this fast eye of push and rustle it is easier for a camel to enter the eye of a needle than for a man to flourish without advertising."

Mrs. Rosa G. Adams Dead

Mrs. Rosa Adams died at the home of Mr. Allen Davis near Woodland Mills, Saturday last week. Mrs. Adams formerly lived in Hickman and was removed to the home of Mr. Davis several weeks ago. She has been in very delicate health since her return from Cuba, at which place she was a missionary from the Baptist Church. She had charge of an orphan's asylum at the latter place for some time. Deceased was a lovely Christian lady and held high in the esteem of her neighbors and all with whom she came in contact. Interment was had at Poplar Grove Cemetery Monday by the Rev. Steigler, of the Baptist Church. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

A ghastly and horrifying murder was committed last Monday night, 4 miles north of Tiptonville. A negro, Ben's McCane was living in a cabin on the Donaldson place with "her feller." Tuesday morning she was found dead in bed, the bed soaked in blood, her throat cut from ear to ear and "her feller" gone.

It has become so much the custom to send keepakes and remembrances to one's friends on holidays that one's purse is again almost all the year round. This Easter the shopkeepers have been most considerate, and "prices for all purses" is the rule in more than one shop that makes a specialty of appropriate holiday gifts.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

Sometimes one has more flowers piled on his coffin and grave than he ever had given to him in all his life. We want our flowers while we are living. The dead are past all that. If we would do good let us do it while we are alive to those who are living.

We sometimes treat strangers more politely and courteously than we do our own dear ones who give their lives for us. "Company manners, tableware and linen" are perhaps not necessary all the time, but what is good for strangers is good for our "loved ones at home."

A crust of bread, a pitcher of water, a log cabin and perfect love—there is happiness for you, whether the day be rainy or sunny. It is the heart that makes the home, whether the eye rests on a potato patch or flower garden. The heart makes home precious, and it is the only thing that can. Home is where the heart is.

The bitterest tears shed over graves are for words left unsaid and for deeds left undone. "She never knew that I loved her." "He never knew what he was to me." "I always meant to make more of our friendship." "I did not know what he was to me until he was gone." Such words are the poisoned arrows which cruel death shoots from the door of the sepulchre.

We need to remember that success in life is not success in material life alone but in the social and religious as well. That a man is not a practical man who is a merchant, a farmer, a teacher merely; he must also be a citizen, a neighbor, a friend, a son, perhaps a brother, a husband, a father—and most important of all a little child in the garden of a Heavenly King.

The lady who laughs heartily is a doctor without a diploma. Her face does more good in a sick room than a bushel of powders or a gallon of bitter draughts. People are always glad to see her. Their hands instinctively go half way out to meet her grasp, while they turn involuntarily from the dampy touch of the dyspeptic, who speaks in the groaning key. She laughs you out of your faults, while you never dream of being offended with her; and you never know what a pleasant world you live in until she points out the sunny streaks on her pathway.

The gentle grace of the mother lives in the daughter long after her head is pillowed in the dust of death; and the fatherly kindness finds its echo in the nobility and courtesy of sons, who come to wear his mantle and to fill his places while on the other hand, from an unhappy, misgoverned and disordered home, go forth persons who shall make other homes miserable, and perpetuate the sourness and sadness the contentious, strifes, and railings which have made their own early lives so wretched and distorted.

Perchance you think that your husband's disposition is much changed; that he is no longer the sweet-tempered, ardent lover he used to be. This may be a mistake. Consider his struggles with the world—his everlasting race with the busy competition of trade. What is it that makes him so eager in the pursuit of gain—so energetic by day, so sleepless by night—but his love of home, wife and children, and a dread that their respectability, according to the light in which he has conceived it, may be enroached upon by the strife of existence. This is the true secret of that silent care which preys upon the hearts of many men; and true it is, that when love is least apparent, it is nevertheless the active principle which animates the heart, though fears and disappointments make up a cloud which obscures the warmer element. As above the clouds there is a glorious sunshine while below are showers and gloom.

so with the conduct of man—behind the gloom of anxiety there is a fountain of high and noble feeling. Think of this in those moments when clouds seem to lower upon your domestic peace, and by tempering your conduct accordingly, the gloom will soon pass away and warmth and brightness take its place.

Stay, stay at home, my heart and rest.

Homekeeping hearts are happiest.

For those that wander they know not where.

Are full of trouble and full of care.

To stay at home is best.

Home—the name made dear by sacred associations, the place where childish feet take their first faltering steps and infant minds receive their first ideas. There lessons of love and truth, of right and wrong, of faith and hope and purity are imprinted upon the plastic heart, and all the sorrows and perplexities of after life are inefficient to quite efface these first deep true impressions. Sweet home, where the mother's gentle hands prepare the little domestic comforts that a father's love provides, and filial affection is "the silver link, the silken tie" that binds the household hand together. Trials may come and clouds may lower, but in the seclusion of home remains sweet healing for the wounds that brave and sensitive hearts hide from a disdainful world. There these hurts and distresses may be confidently revealed and a sovereign remedy found in its unquestioning faith. There a child's pure kiss or the touch of dimpled fingers may revive a soul on the verge of despair; and in the home the brightest dreams become more golden, the rarest pleasure more intense, the tenderest joys more serene. And if, in the varying decrees of fortune, its loving shelter must be abandoned, how the exile folds about his heart, as the traveler does his cloak, the memory of its lights and flowers, its loves and hopes and kindness.

There the noblest influences exert, the holiest impulses find expression, and there have been born the chaste and lofty sentiments that have made a whole world better.

Farmers Selling too Fast.

The principal depressing factor in the cotton market at this time is the too rapid selling of the staple by farmers and merchants. All kinds of misleading and exaggerated reports regarding the congestion of cotton at compresses and interior points are being wired all over Europe and this country for the purpose of depressing prices. It cannot be denied that the movement of the crop to market during the past 30 days has been on too extensive a scale to maintain a stable market at profitable and satisfactory prices to the growers.

Big crop ideas have been exploded by indisputable facts. This crop will not be large enough to supply the enormous demands of the cotton trade during the next twelve months. The prices of cotton goods in all lines are weekly advancing. It is due entirely to the existence of a "Bearish" speculative market, strengthened by the too rapid selling of spot cotton which is forcing prices below a fair profitable basis. This unwarranted and illegitimate violation of the true laws of supply and demand will continue until spot holders strengthen their position by a slower movement of the staple to market.

There is but one course to pursue at this time to bring about normal conditions. Store every bale of cotton under good and safe protection which can be possibly held, either on the farm or in local warehouses. Higher prices are sure to be realized if the crop is marketed intelligently. The present price of cotton is too low. Every farmer in the South should resist to hammer down the market for purely speculative purposes. Every banker and merchant in the South should exert their utmost to assist the farmers in fighting the "Bearish" speculative cotton trade.

Good and Bad Luck.

To sneeze on Friday presages misfortune. To see a shooting star means all sorts of good luck.

To pick up an opal argues the acceptance of some one's evil fortune. Finding a piece of jewelry portends the bestowal of wealth.

To put on a stocking wrong side out and the left shoe first, are both lucky.

Finding an unopened letter means the reception of good news.

To dream of a funeral is an excellent omen.

To chase away a black cat means the throwing away of good luck.

Bad luck will pursue you if you carry the handle of umbrella down.

To hand a Courier man a silver dollar insures another year's happiness, and that your wife will not leave you as long as you do this annually.

End of Leap Year.

In 800 years leap year will have become a thing of the past. By that time the extra 11 days lost to make up the changes from the old Julian calendar to the present one will all have been duly accounted for and the world will roll round in just 365 days, with never a leap year intervening.

THERE IS NO REASON.

why your baby should be thin, and fretful during the night. Worms are the cause of this, sickly babies. It is natural that a healthy baby should be fat and sleep well. If your baby does not retain its food, don't experiment with colic cures and other medicine, but try a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and you will soon see your baby have color and laugh as it should.—For sale by Cargill's Drug Store & Helm & Ellison.
